A Local Law Amending Chapters 149 (Seasonal Rentals) and 196 (Zoning) of the Village Code in relation to short-term and partial rentals

Section 1. The Board of Trustees hereby finds and determines that in order to maintain the character of the Village of Quogue primarily as a quiet family-oriented village and to better secure and promote the public health, comfort, safety, welfare and prosperity of the Village of Quogue and its inhabitants, there should be imposed additional standards pertaining to rentals of one-family dwellings.

Section 2. Section 149-3 (License Required) is hereby amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: “For avoidance of doubt, a lease of a one-family dwelling for a period of less than 14 consecutive days is prohibited in the Village of Quogue by Section 196-16L of the Quogue Village Code, and a Transient Rental Property, as defined in Section 196-2B of the Quogue Village Code, may not be licensed as a seasonal rental.”

Section 3. Section 149-12 (Prohibitions; Restrictions) is hereby amended by deleting the existing provisions of paragraphs C and D thereof and amending them so that they read in their entirety as follows:

D. If a one-family dwelling is utilized as a seasonal rental, the entire dwelling must be rented and occupied for such purpose. As provided in Section 196-16M of the Quogue Village Code, rental to and the use and occupancy by a person of less than all of a one-family dwelling is prohibited.

website or other electronic medium that features short-term rentals or other occupancy without specifying a minimum term of at least 14 consecutive days or (2) the dwelling is offered for lease or other occupancy in any medium for a period of less than 14 consecutive days.

Section 5. Section 196-16 (Uses Restricted) of the Quogue Village Code is hereby amended by adding the following two subparagraphs at the end thereof:

L. A Transient Rental Property.
